Get to know your Family And Community Engagement Team!

Meet Ms. Dulce Aguilar! Ms. Aguilar is in her second year as the Family and Community Engagement Specialist at Emerson Elementary! She has dedicated six years in service to our district. In her role, Ms. Dulce is passionate about fostering meaningful connections between the school, families, and the community. She believes in the power of collaboration and is proud to be part of such a vibrant community. Outside of work, Ms. Aguilar enjoys spending quality time with her family and exploring the beautiful landscapes of Sedona.

Meet Mrs. Karina Lopez! Mrs. Lopez is the F.A.C.E. at Magnet Traditional. She moved to Phoenix in 2001 from Bisbee, AZ. She has committed her career to serving the community through various nonprofit organizations, focusing on in-home social work.

Over the years, Ms. Karina has built a network of valuable resources and connected with incredible mentors. As a passionate family engagement specialist, she provides families with the support and resources they need to thrive, empowering them to navigate challenges and build stronger, healthier connections within their communities
